

ClikAI manual

Volume Control:

To control volume raise index finger and thumb when distance between two fingers is less volume will be low when distance between two fingers is more volume will be high when two fingers touch each other, system will go on mute

Mouse Control:

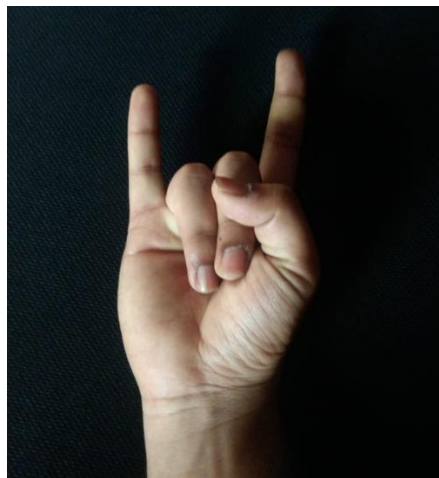

Raise index finger and move the hand to start movement of cursor

Raise middle finger along with index finger to click

Following movement will scroll up the page

Following movement will scroll down the page

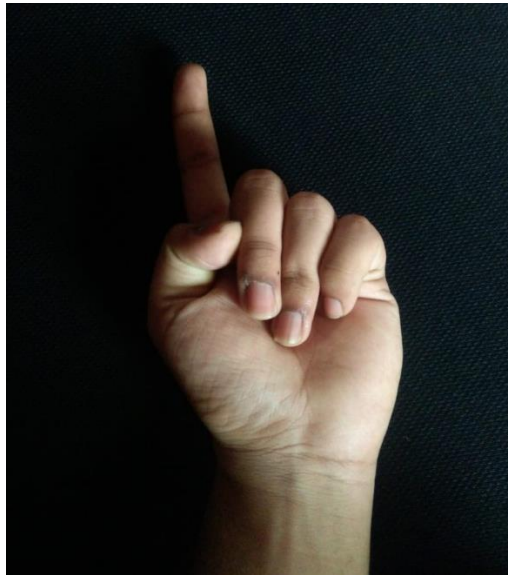

Snipping tool:

Show four fingers excluding thumb to capture screenshot

Move to point from where you want to select the area

Raise middle finger touch it to index's tip and slowly move it down and start selecting area

To capture area raise middle finger again move it away from index finger

